

Year 4 Spelling-Unit 5-Tested Thursday 17th December

Spelling Pattern = Prefix inter- (means between or among)

Group 1

Spelling	Meaning
interact	To do things with other people intercity	Existing or travelling between cities
international	Involving two or more nations
interrelated	To bring into or have a connection with each other Internet	Remember it has a capital letter. A communication system that connects computers around the world intergalactic	Relating to, moving or situated between two or more galaxies intermediate	In the middle
interlock	To connect or lock together
interactive	Designed to be used in a way that involves a user interaction	The act of doing something with other people intercept	To seize, take or stop before something reaches its destination intermission	A short interval between the acts of a play or performance

Year 4 Spelling-Unit 5-Tested Thursday 17th December

Spelling Pattern = Prefix inter- (means between or among)

Group 2

Spelling	Meaning
interact	To do things with other people
intercity	Existing or travelling between cities
international	Involving two or more nations
interrelated	To bring into or have a connection with each other Internet	Remember it has a capital letter. A communication system that connects computers around the world intergalactic	Relating to, moving or situated between two or more galaxies
intermediate	In the middle
interlock	To connect or lock together
interactive	Designed to be used in a way that involves a user
interaction	The act of doing something with other people

Year 4 Spelling-Unit 5-Tested Thursday 17th December

Spelling Pattern = Prefix inter- (means between or among)

Group 3

Spelling	Meaning
interact	To do things with other people
intercity	Existing or travelling between cities
international	Involving two or more nations
interrelated	To bring into or have a connection with each other Internet	Remember it has a capital letter. A communication system that connects computers around the world intergalactic	Relating to, moving or situated between two or more galaxies